H Y M N.

OUR light, our Saviour, is the Lord,
 For nothing need we care;
 The mighty Lord is our support,
 What have we then to fear?

When parents, deaf to Nature's voice,
 Their helpless charge forsook;
 Then Nature's God, who heard our cries,
 Compassion on us took.

3.

Continue still to hear our voice,
 When unto Thee we cry;
 And still the infant's praise receive,
 And still their wants supply.

PSALM XIX.

I.

THE spacious firmament on high,
And all the blue etherial sky,
And spangl'd heav'ns, a shining frame,
Their great original proclaim.
Th' unwearied sun, from day to day,
Does his Creator's pow'r display;
And publishes to every land,
The work of an Almighty Hand.

Soon as the ev'ning shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wond'rous tale,
And nightly to the list'ning earth,
Repeats the story of her birth;
While all the stars that round her burn,
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

3.

What tho' in solemn silence all,
Move round the dark terrestrial ball,
What tho' no real voice or sound,
Amid' their radiant orbs be found;
In reason's ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice;
For ever singing, as they shine,
The Hand that made us is Divine!

PSALM

P S A L M XXIII.

1.

MY shepherd is the living Lord,
Nothing therefore I need ;
In pastures fair, near pleasant streams,
He setteth me to feed.

2.

He shall convert, and glad my soul,
And bring my mind in frame ;
To walk in paths of righteousness,
For his most holy name.

3.

Yea, tho' I walk in vale of Death,
Yet will I fear no ill ;
Thy rod and staff do comfort me,
And thou art with me still.

4.

And in the presence of my foes,
My table thou shalt spread ;
Thou wilt fill full my cup, and thou
Anointed hast my head.

5.

Thro' all my life thy favour is
So frankly shew'd to me,
That in thy house for evermore,
My dwelling place shall be.

PSALM CXLV.

THE Lord does them support that fall,
And makes the prostrate rise;
For his kind aid all creatures call,
Who timely food supplies.

Whate'er their various wants require,
With open hands he gives;
And so fulfils the just desire
Of ev'ry one that lives.

3.

He grants the full desire of those
Who him with fear adore,
And will their troubles soon compose
When they his aid implore.

4.

The Lord preserves all those with care
Whom grateful love employs;
But sinners, who his vengeance dare,
With dreadful wrath destroys.

5.

My time to come, in praises spent,
Shall still advance his fame,
And all mankind with one consent,
For ever bless his name.

A N H Y M N.

FATHER of mercy, hear our pray'rs,
 For those who do us good,
 Whose love for us a place prepares,
 And kindly gives us food !

Each hand and heart that lends us aid,
 Thou dost inspire and guide ;
 Nor is their bounty unrepaid,
 Who for the poor provide.

Thou still shalt be our grateful theme,
 Thy praise we'll ever sing,
 Our friends the kind refreshing stream,
 But thou th' unfailing spring.

For those whose goodness founded this,
 A better house prepare,
 Receive them to thy heav'nly bliss,
 And may we meet them there.

May all the pleasing pains they share,
 Be crown'd with wish'd success,
 The present age applaud their care,
 And future ages bless.

So shall the helpless, who remain,
 Expos'd as we before,
 Increasing still our humble strain,
 With louder songs adore.

A N T H E M.

SING unto the Lord, and praise his name;
be telling of his salvation from day to day.

Declare his honour unto the Heathen,
and his wonders unto the people.

For the Lord is great, he cannot worthily be praised; he is more to be feared than all gods.

HALLELUJAH.

P S A L M XLI.

1.

THE men are blest whose tender cares,
Relieve the poor distrest;
When troubles compass them around,
The Lord shall give them rest.

2.

The Lord their lives with blessing crown'd,
In safety shall prolong;
And disappoint the will of those,
Who seek to do them wrong.

3.

If they in languishing estate,
Opprest with sickness lie;
The Lord will easy make their bed,
And inward strength supply.

4.

Let therefore God, our gracious Lord,
From age to age be blest;
And all the people's glad applause,
With loud amens exprest.

A N H Y M N.

WHEN rising from the bed of death,
O'erwhelm'd with guilt and fear,
I see my Maker face to face,
O how shall I appear !

If yet, while pardon may be found,
And mercy may be fought ;
My heart with inward horror shrinks
And trembles at the thought.

When thou, O Lord, shalt stand disclos'd,
In Majesty severe ;
And sit in judgment on my soul,
Oh ! how shall I appear !
But thou hast told the troubled mind,
Who does her sins lament,
The timely tribute of her tears,
Shall endless woe prevent.

Then see the sorrows of my heart,
E'er yet it be too late ;
And hear my Saviour's dying groans,
To give those sorrows weight :
For never shall my soul despair,
Her pardon to procure,
Who knows thine only Son has dy'd,
To make her pardon sure.

ANTHEM.

A N T H E M.

BEHOLD, the Lord is our salvation; in him will we trust: For the Lord is our strength and our song, and he is become our salvation. Cry aloud, and sing unto the Lord: For great is the holy Lord our God:

HALLELUJAH.

PSALM

P S A L M XVIII.

O God ! sole object of our love ;
Our refuge from our foes ;
Our hope, our fortress, our defence,
Our haven of repose

2.

When danger, misery and death,
Encompass'd us around,
In 'midst of terror and despair,
Thy mercies still we found.

3.

The Lord descendeth from above,
And bows the heav'ns most high,
And underneath his feet he casts,
The darkness of the sky.

On cherubs wings, Jehovah comes,
The helpless to redress ;
The sinking hills, and trembling earth,
The righteous Judge confess.

HALLELUJAH.

P S A L M LVII.

1.

O God! my heart is fix'd, is bent,
Its thankful tribute to present;
And with my heart, my voice I'll raise,
To thee, my God, in songs of praise.

2.

Awake, my glory, harp and lute,
No longer let your strings be mute;
And I, my tuneful part to take,
Will with the early dawn awake.

3.

Thy praises, Lord, I will resound,
To all the list'ning nations round;
Thy mercy highest heav'n transcends;
Thy truth beyond the clouds extends.

4.

Be thou, O God, exalted high;
And as thy glory fills the sky,
So let it be on earth display'd,
'Till thou art here as there obey'd.

P S A L M CXXXVI.

TO God, the mighty Lord,
Our joyful thanks repeat:
To him due praise afford,
Whose mercies are so great.
For his mercy endureth for ever,

2.
To him, whose pow'r hath made
The heav'ns with mighty hand;
And ocean wide hath spread,
Around the spacious land.
For his mercy endureth for ever, &c.

3.
Thro' heav'n he did display
The numerous hosts of light;
The sun to rule the day,
The moon and stars the night.
For his mercy endureth for ever, &c.

4.
He doth the food supply,
On which all creatures live:
To God, who reigns on high,
Eternal praises give!
For his mercy endureth for ever, &c.

A N H Y M N.

THE Lord my pasture shall prepare,
 And feed me with a shepherd's care;
 His presence shall my wants supply,
 And guard me with a watchful eye:
 My noon-day walks he shall attend,
 And all my midnight hours defend.

When in the sultry glebe I faint,
 Or on the thirsty mountains pant;
 To fertile vales, and dewy meads
 My weary wand'ring steps he leads;
 Where graceful rivers, soft and slow,
 Amid the verdant landskip flow.

Tho' in the paths of Death I tread,
 With gloomy horrors overspread,
 My stedfast heart shall fear no ill,
 For thou, O Lord, art with me still;
 Thy friendly crook shall give me aid,
 And guide me thro' the dreadful shade.

Tho', in a bare and rugged way,
 Thro' devious lonely wilds I stray,
 Thy bounty shall my pains beguile;
 The barren wilderness shall smile,
 With sudden green, and herbage crown'd,
 And streams shall murmur all around.

A N A N T H E M.

IT is good to give thanks unto the Lord,
and to sing praises unto thy name, O thou
Most High !

To shew forth thy loving kindness in the morning ; and thy faithfulness ev'ry night :
for thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy works : I will triumph in the operations of thy hands.

Thou, Lord, art Most High for evermore.

ANTHEM.

A N T H E M.

ARISE, my heart! my soul, arise!
 Jehovah praise! Sing till the skies
 Re-eccho his ascending fame!
 My soul, O celebrate his name!

He, as a father to his child,
 So soft, so quickly reconcil'd:
 He knows the fabric of us all;
 That dust is our original.

Man flourishes like grass, a flower;
 That blows, and withers in an hour:
 By scorching heat, by blasting wind,
 Destroy'd, and leaves no print behind.

Ye angels, who in strength exceed;
 Who him obey with winged speed;
 Ye order'd host of radiant stars;
 O you, his flaming ministers:

All whom his wisdom did create,
 Thro' his wide empire, celebrate
 His glorious name, with sweet accord!
 Join thou, my soul, to praise the Lord!

A N H Y M N.

GLORY be to God, most high, and on earth peace, good-will towards men.
We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship
thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee,
for thy great glory, O Lord; heavenly king;
God the Father Almighty.

HALLELUJAH.

AMEN.

A N H Y M N.

COME sing the great Jehovah's praise,
 Whose mercies have prolong'd our days :
 Sing with a joyful voice :
 With bended knees, and raised eyes,
 Adore your God with sacrifice ;
 In sacred hymns rejoice.

Great is the God of our defence,
 Transcending all in eminence ;
 His hand the earth sustains ;
 The deeps, the lofty mountains made,
 The land and liquid plains display'd,
 And curbs them with his reins.

O come, before his footstool fall !
 Our only God, who form'd us all,
 Thro' storms and dangers leads ;
 He is our shepherd, we his sheep ;
 His hands from wolves and rapine keep,
 In pleasant pastures feeds.

P S A L M XXXIV.

1.

THRO' all the changing scenes of life,
In trouble and in joy ;
The praises of my God shall still,
My heart and tongue employ.

2.

Of his deliv'rance I will boast,
'Till all who are distressed ;
From my example comfort take,
And charm their griefs to rest.

3.

Oh make but trial of his love !
Experience will decide,
How blest are they, and only they,
Who in his truth confide.

Fear him ye saints, and ye will then
Have nothing else to fear ;
Make ye his service your delight,
Your wants will be his care.

P S A L M I.

BLEST is the man whose constant feet,
 Strait in the paths of goodness tread :
 Who with the proud ne'er takes his seat,
 Nor is by strife or malice led :

The law of God is his supreme delight ;
 By day his pattern, and his guide by night.

Like as a tree in happy soil,
 With fairest leaves and flow'rs array'd
 Nature repays the planter's toil,

With pleasant fruit and grateful shade :
 So shall the just in virtue perfect grown,
 See joy and peace his faithful labors crown.

3.

But ne'er shall peace her chearing ray,
 Beam on the wicked's guilty head ;
 Entangl'd more, the more he strays,
 By folly and by vice misled :
 Illusive views still disappoint his aim ;
 His airy projects vanish like a dream.

4.

When, therefore, from the realms of light,
 The righteous judge on earth appears ;
 How shall the wicked stand the sight,
 Opprest with shame, with guilt, and fears ?
 In humble confidence the just shall meet,
 The happy sentence of a bliss compleat.

AMEN.

P S A L M XXXIII.

LET all the just to God with joy,
Their chearful voices raise;
For well the righteous it becomes
To sing glad songs of praise.

2.

Most faithful is the word of God,
His works with truth abound;
He justice loves, and all the earth,
Is with his goodness crown'd.

3.

By his Almighty Word at first,
The heav'nly arch was rear'd;
And all the beauteous host of light
At his command appear'd.

4.

Whate'er the mighty Lord decrees,
Shall stand for ever sure;
The settled purpose of his heart,
To ages shall endure.

P S A L M VIII.

LORD how glorious is thy name, [claim!
 Whose pow'r the heav'ns and earth pro-
 Thy glory thou hast set on high,
 Above the regions of the sky :
 Thou shalt the infants voices raise,
 In pow'rful notes to hymn thy praise ;
 'Till ev'n thine enemies confefs
 Thy works, thy heav'nly pow'r exprefs.

When we the glorious fabric see,
 Sun, moon and stars, dispos'd by thee ;
 Oh what is man, or his frail race,
 That thou should'st such a shadow grace !
 The heav'ns th' angelic hosts contain,
 But man thou form'st on earth to reign,
 Whate'er on earth thy hand has made,
 Was under his dominion laid.

3.

The herds that plough the fertile field !
 The flock that fleecy tribute yield :
 All that on dales or mountains feed,
 That shady woods or desarts breed ;
 All that thro' æther wing their way,
 Or in the rolling ocean play :
 Lord, how glorious is thy name,
 Whose pow'r the heav'ns and earth proclaim !

P S A L M   X C I I .

THOU who art enthron'd above,
Thou by whom we live and move;
Oh how sweet with joyful tongue,
To resound thy praise in song.

2.

When the morning paints the skies,
When the sparkling stars arise;
All thy favors to rehearse,
And give thanks in grateful verse !

3.

Let the lute and harp combine,
Organs in the chorus join ;
Solemn notes of sweetest sound,
Great Jehovah's praise resound.

4.

From thy works our joys arise,
Oh thou only good and wise !
Who thy wonders can declare,
How profound thy councils are !

P S A L M CXXXIX.

1.

THou Lord, by strictest search, hast known
My rising up and lying down;
My secret thoughts are known to thee,
Known long before conceiv'd by me.

2.

Thine eye my bed, and path surveys,
My public haunts, and private ways;
Thou know'st whate'er my lips would vent,
My yet unutter'd words intent.

3.

Surrounded by thy pow'r I stand;
On ev'ry side I find thy hand;
Wisdom, for human search too high,
Too dazzling bright for mortal eye.

4.

Let me acknowledge, O my God!
That since this maze of life I've trod;
The bounties of thy love surmount,
The pow'r of numbers to recount.

5.

Search, try, O God, my thoughts and heart,
If evil lurks in any part!
Correct me where I go astray,
And guide me in the perfect way.

P S A L M XC.

LORD, if thine eyes survey our faults ;
And justice grows severe :
Thy dreadful wrath exceeds our thoughts ;
And burns beyond our fear.

2.
Life, like a vain amusement, flies,
A fable or a song ;
By swift degrees our nature dies,
Nor can our joys be long.

3.
'Tis but a few whose days amount,
To threescore years and ten ;
And all beyond that short account,
Is sorrow, toil and pain.

4.
Almighty God, reveal thy love,
And not thy wrath alone ;
O let our sweet experience prove
The mercies of thy throne !

5.
Our souls would learn the heav'nly art,
T' improve the hours we have ;
That we may act the wiser part
And live beyond the grave,

ATTUNE the song to mournful strains,
 Of wrongs and woes the song complains;
 An orphan's voice essays to swell,
 The notes that tears, by turns repel.

Left on the world's bleak waste forlorn;
 In sin conceiv'd, to sorrow born;
 No guide, the devious maze to tread,
 Above, no friendly shelter spread,
 Alone, amidst surrounding strife,
 And naked to the storms of life;
 Despair looks round with aching eyes,
 And sinking Nature groans and dies.

But who is he that deigns to claim,
 From all the wrong'd, a Father's name?
 To rapture turn the changing strains:
 'Tis God, whose hand the world sustains.

He smiling bends, from Mercy's throne,
 And calls the fatherless his own:
 To strangers hands he gives the trust;
 We feel that strangers hands are just.
 They to the poor his gifts dispense,
 And guard the weak with his defence.

O Father, let us still be thine,
 And claim thine heritage divine!
 Still blest, while gratitude repays,
 Thy endless love, with endless praise.

A N H Y M N.

THOU great, first cause, least understood !
Who all my sense confin'd :
To know but this, that thou art good,
And that myself am blind.

Teach me to feel another's woe,
To hide the fault I see ;
That mercy I to others shew,
That mercy shew to me.

Mean tho' I am, not wholly so,
Since quick'ned by thy breath ;
O, lead me wheresoe'er I go,
Thro' this day's life, or death.

This day be bread and peace my lot ;
All else beneath the sun :
Thou know'st, if best bestow'd, or not,
And let thy will be done.

To thee, whose temple is all space,
Whose altar, earth, seas, skies ;
One chorus let all beings raise,
All Nature's incense rise.

P S A L M CVI.

1.

O Render thanks to God above,
The fountain of eternal love !
Whose mercy firm, thro' ages past,
Has stood, and shall for ever last.

2.

Who can his mighty deeds express ?
Not only vast, but numberless !
What mortal eloquence can raise
His tribute of immortal praise ?

3.

Happy are they, and only they,
Who from thy judgments never stray ;
Who know what's right : not only so,
But always practice what they know.

4.

Extend to me that favor, Lord,
Thou to thy chosen dost afford :
When thou return'st to set them free,
Let thy salvation visit me.

5.

O may I worthy prove to see
Thy saints in full prosperity ;
That I the joyful choir may join,
And count thy people's triumph mine !

WHEN all thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys,
Transported with the view, I'm lost
In wonder, love and praise !

Thy providence my life sustain'd,
And all my wants redrest,
When in the silent womb I lay,
And hung upon the breast.

Unnumber'd comforts to my soul
Thy tender care bestow'd ;
Before my infant heart conceiv'd
From whence those comforts flow'd.

Thro' ev'ry period of my life,
Thy goodness I'll pursue,
And after death, in distant worlds,
The glorious theme renew.

Thro' all eternity to thee
A joyful song we'll raise ;
For, O ! eternity's too short
To utter all thy praise !

1.

HAVE mercy, Lord, on me,
As thou wert ever kind ;
Let me, oppress'd with loads of guilt,
Thy wonted mercy find.

2.

Wash off my foul offence,
And cleanse me from my sin ;
For I confess my crime, and see,
How great my guilt has been.

3.

Against thee, Lord, alone,
And only in thy sight,
Have I transgress'd ; and tho' condemn'd,
Must own thy judgments right.

4.

In guilt each part was form'd,
Of all this sinful frame ;
In guilt I was conceiv'd, and born,
The heir of sin and shame.

5.

Blot out my crying sins,
Nor me in anger view ;
Create in me an heart that's clean,
An upright mind renew.

AN HYMN.

TO thee, great God, our thanks are due,
Thy goodness we adore;
Who bids the feeling heart to glow,
With pity for the poor:
Who lets the infant orphan share,
The good man's riches, love and care.
Obscur'd by mean and humble birth,
In ignorance we lay;
'Till Christian bounty call'd us forth,
And led us into day:
Taught us the word of God t' explore,
And ask his love, and dread his pow'r.
Oh look for ever kindly down,
On those that help the poor!
Oh let success their labors crown
And plenty heap their store!
And may that mite which we've possess'd,
Diffuse a blessing o'er the rest!
And, when before thy judgment seat,
With trembling hope we go;
Reward, or punishment, to meet,
For what we've done below:
Our shouting voices shall declare
Their tender love to us while here.

That in th' assembly of the just,

which is Christ the Lord.

You shall find the babe, wrapt in swaddling

Glory to God in the highest; and on earth, peace; good will towards men.

To spread his name abroad.
How great the works his hand has wrought,
How glorious in our sight !
And men in ev'ry age have fought
His wonders with delight !

2.

How most exact is Nature's frame !
How wise th' eternal mind !
His councils never change the scheme,
That his first thoughts design'd.
When he redeem'd his chosen sons,
He fix'd his cov'nant sure :
The orders that his lips pronounce
To endless years endure.

Nature and Time, and Earth and Skies,
Thy heav'nly skill proclaim :
What shall we do to make us wise,
But learn to read thy name ?
To fear thy pow'r, to trust thy grace,

Loud thanks to our Almighty king !
For we our voices high should raise,
When our salvation's rock we praise.

To thank him for his favours past :
To him address, in joyful songs,
The praise that to his name belongs.

3.

The depths of Earth are in his hand !
Her secret wealth at his command :
The strength of hills that reach the skies,
Subjected to his empire lies.

And sun that guid'st the day ;
Ye glitt'ring stars of light,
To him your homage pay.
His praise declare,

And praise his holy name ;

RECITATIVE.

JEHOVAH, Lord! how great, how wond'rous great, how glorious is thy name through all the world? When I behold the heavens, thy fingers art, the moon and stars which thou so bright hast set in the pure firmament, then saith my heart, Oh what is man! that thou rememberest him?

S O L O.

Lord God of Hosts, to whom the pray'r
Of contrite souls is dear;
Thou God, our shield propitious prove,
And thine anointed hear!
For in thy courts one day to be
Is better and more blest,
Than in the joys of vanity
A thousand years at best.

D U E T

D U E T and C H O R U S.

With chearful notes let all the earth
To heaven their voices raise ;

Let all, inspir'd with godly mirth,
Sing solemn hymns of praise !

God's tender mercy knows no bounds,
His truth shall ne'er decay :

Then let the willing nations round,
Their grateful tribute pay !

HALLELUJAH. AMEN.

O God ! thou art my God ; early will I

Thus have I looked for thee in holiness, that I might behold thy power and glory.

For thy loving kindness is better than life

MY strength will I ascribe unto thee: for thou art the God of my refuge.

As for me I will sing of thy power, and will praise thy mercy; betimes in the morning: for thou hast been my defence, and refuge, in the time of my trouble.

Unto thee, O my strength, I will sing!
for thou, O God! art my refuge, and my merciful God.

C H O R U S.

The merciful goodness of the Lord, en-

him; and his righteousness upon childrens children.

ANTHEM.

A N T H E M.

C H O R U S.

ARISE, pour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord! Lift up thine hands towards him, for the life of the young children that faint for hunger, in the top of every street.

R E C I T A T I V E.

The tongue of the suckling child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ask for bread; and no man breaketh it unto them.

D U E T.

I fought the Lord, and he heard me; yea, he delivered me out of all my fears. Lo! the poor crieth, and the Lord heareth him: yea, and saveth him out of all his troubles.

R E C I T A T I V E.

Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not. I have heard their cry; I know their sorrow.

A father of the fatherless is God in his holy habitation. Say no more! The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

SOLO.

S O L O.

The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, but shall understand the loving kindness of the Lord. Break forth into singing, and cry aloud, O thou afflicted! tossed with tempest, and not comforted. Enlarge the place of thy tent, and stretch forth the curtains of thy habitations: for thy Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.

R E C I T A T I V E.

For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee. In righteousness shalt thou be established. Kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and queens thy nursing mothers.

S O L O.

O Lord, our Governor, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! out of the mouths of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength. O Lord, our governor, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!
